10. 10.1 Subject to article 10.2, the Association shall hold in each year a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in, the notice calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Association and that of the next.
- 10.2 So long as the Association holds its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. Subject to article 11, the annual general meeting shall be held at such time and at such place in the State as the Executive Committee shall appoint.
11. The Executive Committee or Trustees, whenever it thinks fit, may convene an extraordinary general meeting. Extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitions, as provided by section 132 of the 1963 Act. If at any time there are not within the State sufficient Executive Committee Members capable of acting to form a quorum, any Executive Committee Members or any two Club or Full Members may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Executive Committee.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

12. Subject to sections 133 and 141 of the 1963 Act, an annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the Association (other than an annual general meeting or a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution) shall be called by 14 days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to such persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Association. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

13. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting and all that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Executive Committee Members and auditors, the election of Executive Committee Members and the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer in the place of those retiring, the appointment of auditors or re- appointment of the retiring auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.
14. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Full and Club Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, ten Full and/or Club Members present in person and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

15. If, within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Executive Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Club Members present in person shall be a quorum.
16. The Chairman, if any, of the Association shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Association, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Executive Committee Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
17. If at any meeting no Executive Committee Member is willing to act as chairman or if no Executive Committee Member is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Full and Club Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
18. The Chairman, with the consent of more than one half of the Full and Club Members present and voting at any meeting at which a quorum is present, may adjourn the meeting (and shall do so if directed by the meeting) from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might have been lawfully transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 16 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.
19. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided (subject to article 24) on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded-
  - 19.1 by the chairman; or
  - 19.2 by at least ten Full or Club Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or
  - 19.3 by any Full or Club Member(s) present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution, on a show of hands, has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Association, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

20. Except as provided in article 21, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
21. Where there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at-which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
22. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

23. Subject to section 141 of the 1963 Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the Full and Club Members for the time being entitled to attend and vote on such resolution at a general meeting shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if the resolution had been passed at a general meeting of the Association duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more persons, and if described as a special resolution shall be deemed to be a special resolution within the meaning of the 1963 Act. Such resolution when duly signed by any Full or Club Member may be delivered or transmitted (unless the Executive Committee shall determine otherwise either generally or in any particular case) by facsimile transmission or some other means of transmitting the contents of documents.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

24. No Member shall be entitled to attend and to vote at any general meeting unless all subscriptions and other moneys payable by him to the Association on or before the date of the meeting (and not at some fixed date thereafter) have been paid.
25. Full Members shall be entitled to attend and speak and vote at general meetings.
26. On a show of hands and on a poll each Full Member entitled to vote who is present in person shall have one vote.
27. A Full Member who is entitled to vote but who is of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver, guardian or other person appointed by that court and any such committee, receiver, guardian or other person may vote by proxy on a show of hands or on a poll.

28. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
29. Votes must be cast either personally or by proxy. No member shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Association either as vendor, purchaser (whether personally involved or as employee or associate of the vendor or purchaser) or otherwise nor shall any such contract or arrangement entered into, or by, or on behalf of any firm or company in which any member shall be interested, be automatically void. The nature of such interest must be disclosed at the meeting at which the contract is being discussed and the member must exclude himself from the discussion. If it emerges that a member has not disclosed a conflict of interest of any nature at a meeting and subsequently the member or any firm or company in which he or she has an involvement profits from a related contract with the Association that member will be obliged to account to the Association for such profits. Failure to disclose a conflict of interest of any nature will be grounds for disqualification from the Association on the decision of a simple majority of Executive Committee members.
